	YES	NO
1 Does the organization have a racially nondiscriminatory policy toward students by statement in its charter, bylaws, other governing instrument, or in a resolution of its governing body?	1	✓
2 Does the organization include a statement of its racially nondiscriminatory policy toward students in all its brochures, catalogues, and other written communications with the public dealing with student admissions, programs, and scholarships?	2	✓
3 Has the organization publicized its racially nondiscriminatory policy through newspaper or broadcast media during the period of solicitation for students, or during the registration period if it has no solicitation program, in a way that makes the policy known to all parts of the general community it serves? If "Yes," please describe. If "No," please explain. If you need more space, use Part II While effective advertisement design restricts lengthy text (and thus a text-based description of the PBA's non-discrimination policies) we have found that pictures of students which illustrate the diversity currently found at the PBA school and after school programs communicates this message effectively, and stimulates inquiries from a diverse applicant pool of families. We are then in a position to provide more text-intensive materials that describe our non-discrimination policies, and offer applicants evidence based on our current student body.	3	✓
4 Does the organization maintain the following? a Records indicating the racial composition of the student body, faculty, and administrative staff?	4a	✓
b Records documenting that scholarships and other financial assistance are awarded on a racially nondiscriminatory basis?	4b	✓

The organization asks all families who wish to apply for tuition assistance to utilize a service that calculates in a systematic fashion whether or not a family's income and/or assets lead them to need financial assistance. This service, called SSS, normalizes across families an assessment of their ability to afford tuition. A financial aid committee reviews each request and follows a pre-established set of principles to determine who should receive financial aid. Similar processes are used to determine financial aid for day school, after school, camp.

Part V Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule L (see instructions).

The school and the lenders have agreed to sell the site rather than invest further capital in it. Lenders are not requesting repayment or interest until the site is sold, although the written agreement called for interim interest payments. The school is technically in default of loan conditions but with lender's consent. Furthermore, loan agreement states that interest is only due if the site is sold for gain.

As a result, the school is in no fiscal danger from the loan agreement.

Part VI Section B, Line 11: All board members were sent a copy of the blank form 990's to review. Every year, the changes in the 990 - particularly those around governance - stimulate new discussions around how we can better govern the organization.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19: All relevant documents are available upon request at the PBA front office.

Part VI, Section B, Line 15: First, the PBA is a member of the East Bay Independent School Association (EBISA) through which it has been able to understand salary ranges for various positions. Second, some past and current members of the PBA board are in education, and thus have a sense of salary ranges per position. Third, the PBA, as a young and growing institution, has had the need to hire staff from other more established institutions in recent years; each hire from another school brings new benchmarks. Fourth, other institutions make offers to PBA staff in an effort to recruit them; their offers also provide benchmarks.

Part IX Line 24 : Other expenses include tour expenses, local concerts and recordings, academic field trips, and direct camp expenses.

Part XI, Line 5: PBA's -$19,858 change in net assets or fund balances was due to the combination of an significant increase in accounts receivable (reflecting the school's growth) plus paydown of accounts payable, plus paydown of a school bus debt, plus an operating loss from 2009-2010 on a cash basis.
